Re: Follow up on the court's 2003-2016 "TortureGate Corruption Murder Scandal"

Dear Supreme Court Justices:

Weeks ago the president of Interpol disappeared while home in China. President Meng Hongwei was detained for passing on bribe money from President George W. Bush and Vice President Dick Cheney, likely to the International Criminal Court judges, to throw the pending investigation into CIA hypothermic cold cell torture; used to torture innocent Muslims to death because they resisted.

On October 19, 2018, at 3:00pm ET, President George W. Bush was interrogated by the communist Chinese government, where he likely confessed to his crimes. Meng Hongwei may be executed for his corruption.

You started this corruption and continued it for over a decade, by requiring all federal judges to instantly dismiss every torture lawsuit, to protect pals from same. Which tragically resulted in scores of our own citizens, immigrants, and even children, being brutally tortured to death by killers you granted immunity from any civil lawsuit.

President George W. Bush is now beholden to Chinese President Xi Jinping to keep the secrets. Even worse, your newest justice is married to President Bush's personal secretary. Which means she is never privy to any of said corruption first, and then not to Brett second. Now President Bush controls the supreme court once again, because Brett obviously has to obey George. But now George has to obey Xi, which turns the supreme court into a national security risk too? Is this a good lesson on why corruption is a bad idea?

How long are you going to remain silent doing nothing? Why must you prove the practice of law such a grand illusion?

I AM,

David Andrew Bardes, Sui Juris
