Constitutional Question Presented:

Are citizens, being brutally tortured with hypothermia until dead a violation of the Constitution? Are citizens, being brutally tortured with hypothermia until almost dead a violation of the Constitution? Are citizens, being brutally tortured with hypothermia a violation of the Constitution? Does the Constitution exist?

List of Parties:

All parties at this time are captioned.

Opinions Below:

On January 19, 2016 The United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit (No. 15-2396, doc. 9 & 10) affirmed finding no errors in the district court's instant dismissal on October 2, 2015, (1:15-cv-214-MR-DLH, doc. 3)

The United States District Court case was timely filed under federal question with fee paid and instantly dismissed claiming legal frivolity on October 2, 2015, and further denied a post-judicial motion on November 10, 2015 (doc. 9.)

Jurisdiction:

The United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit ruled on January 19, 2016.

The jurisdiction of this Court is invoked under 28 U. S. C. § 1254(1).

Constitutional Provisions Involved:

If the Constitution exists, then all of it and all law since signed.

Statement of the Case:

Why must stopping our beloved nation from brutally torturing and brutally torturing until dead, the citizens with slow brutal hypothermic torture be such a chore?

United States Appeals Court Judges Wynn, Agee, and Floyd now join those before in continuing the ongoing murders of citizens.

Are not salaries being paid to prevent me from becoming a victim barely survived and having to do my civic duty by being here today? To stop it. Stop it.

We are doing ISIS like things to our own people, crucifixion is a hypothermic death, ask ISIS. Stop it.

Stop it. Please. Now.

I restate my Complaint (doc. 1) Post-Judicial Motion (doc. 5) and Appeal Informal Brief (doc. 2), and now additionally apply to United States Appeals Court Judges Wynn, Agee, and Floyd.

Reasons for Granting the Petition and Conclusion:

Perhaps never before has a more important Constitutional question been asked of the United States Supreme Court, as now the continued existence of our great nation as such lies in your answer or silence.
